THE WHISKY

Distilled from grain grown on the Arbikie estate — 60% winter rye, 25% spring malted barley and 15% winter wheat — and matured in new charred American oak, with no secondary finishing cask.

TASTING NOTES

Nose — Malted cookies followed by dry orange peel and black tea, then spice and ripe fruits come to life.

Palate — Forest berries balanced with spice, black tea, hints of heather, caramel and apple pastry.

Finish — Peppery, with toasted oak and an elongated body from column distillation.
