THE LIQUEUR

Based on a secret recipe passed from generation to generation of the Vena family, Amaro Lucano owes its distinct flavour to a delicate blending of more than 30 herbs — a closely guarded recipe dating back to 1894. Best enjoyed neat, over ice or with the addition of orange peel, and excellent in cocktails.

TASTING NOTES

Nose — Complex herbal aromas with notes of caramel and nuts.

Palate — Medium-sweet fruit, herb and spice flavours.

Finish — A bite of bitter herbs to finish.

THE PRODUCER

Amaro Lucano was created in 1894 by Cavalier Pasquale Vena in the back of his biscuit factory in Pisticci, Basilicata, from a mixture of herbs with citrus and floral notes. In 1965 the company moved to a purpose-built site at Pisticci Scalo, where the Vena family still produces the amaro today.
